The Sound of Music Fine Arts Conservatory (K-8th)

Drama, Dance and Visual Arts

Students experience music, acting, choreography and visual arts based on this classic musical. They learn songs and improvise scenes around them, learn group movement for the songs, develop some of their own dances, design and create set pieces, props and costume pieces for the students' songs, and focus on a style or technique of visual art. On Friday afternoon students will present their original performances for parents and friends at R. E. Baker Elementary.

Monday-Friday, March 22-26, 8:00am-3:00pm $165 + $10*

Teaching artists: Jason Suel, Kay Fish & Chamisa Wheeler

Camp will be held at Trike Theatre-120 S. Main St. and at Kaleidoscope Dance Studio-107 NW 2nd St.

Camper groups, K-2nd grades, 3rd-4th grades & 5th-8th grades, will rotate between studios for Music & Acting, Choreography and Visual Arts.
